

Learn How to Avoid Cubs

It is illegal to harvest a bear less than a year of age. Generally, cubs less than a year old are accompanying sows and appear smaller than the sow. In Wisconsin, measurements taken of cubs in dens have shown that avoiding a bear that is less than 42 inches in length, from the end of its nose to the base of the tail, will avoid most bears less than a year old. Marking a stick or other item and placing it near your bait site may help in determining the size of the bear. WHEN IN DOUBT, LET IT PASS.

Validating Kills

Immediately after killing a bear, a person shall validate the license by cutting out the appropriate information as instructed on the license. The license must then be attached to the bear's lower jaw. You may wish to fold the kill tag in half directly over a piece of wire or cord (after removing backing) before attaching the license to the lower jaw of the bear in a secure and permanent manner. The bear must be registered by the person who killed it within 72 hours of the kill.

Carcass Care

Bear hunting season usually occurs in warm and wet weather conditions. The carcass of a harvested bear can be up to five times larger than a deer, and the terrain over which the bear must be moved can be especially difficult. For meat of good quality, follow these important steps:

1. Cool meat quickly (minimum 32-40° F) and age properly.
2. Prevent dampness (any waterproof covering must allow full air circulation).
3. Keep meat clean, and keep flies off.

How Bear Hunters Help

The DNR collects a tooth from all bears and the reproductive tracts from female bear. The tooth is used to determine the age of the bear, and the reproductive tract is used to determine the reproductive condition of the bear. Gathered over a period of years, the information also can be used to estimate the number of bear in the state and whether the population is increasing, decreasing or stable. The tooth and reproductive tract should be collected at the time you dress-out your bear and turned in at the time the bear is sealed and registered. It is very important that a tooth is submitted with each reproductive tract. For more information on how to remove and submit the female reproductive tract, see www.michigan.gov/bear under Bear Hunting.

Tooth Collection

Bears can be aged using a microscope to count the number of cementum layers in cross-sections of premolar teeth from either the upper or lower jaw. The cementum layers look much like rings in a cross-section of a tree; each layer represents one year.

The premolars are small, single-rooted, peg-like teeth located between the canines and the molars. A premolar can be removed by cutting with a knife in front of and behind the tooth and pulling gently with pliers. It is okay if some of the gum adheres to the tooth. The aging technique actually works better if the tooth is not scraped clean. The age cannot be determined from the tooth crown; therefore, it is very important that the premolar be removed with the root as intact as possible.

The tooth can be wrapped in paper (not plastic or foil) or placed in an envelope and can be dried or frozen. Turn in the tooth when you have your bear sealed and registered. The age of your bear can be checked at www.michigan.gov/dnrlab after April 1.

Bear Hunting Reporting Option

Accurate and complete information on hunting activity is vital for sound wildlife management. All bear hunters are encouraged to report their hunting activity, after their season has ended, at www.michigan.gov/hunting. These surveys are the same as those traditionally mailed to randomly selected hunters. Mail surveys will continue; however, the online reporting option allows all hunters to participate. Mandatory registration for all successful bear hunters is required within 72 hours of bear harvest.

Bear Cooperator Patch

Michigan's bear cooperator patch program is coordinated by the Michigan Bear Hunters Association, in partnership with the DNR. Young hunters, ages 10-17, who have a valid bear hunting license may receive a free patch. To receive a patch, please send name and complete address, along with a legible copy of the youth's valid bear hunting license, to MBHA, Bear Patch Program, 10510 Fairgrieve Rd., Johannesburg, MI 49751. To view the 2013 bear patch go to www.michigan.gov/bear.

Adult hunters, collectors and other interested individuals may purchase the patch for $5, including postage and handling. You do not have to harvest a bear to purchase a patch. Send orders to the address above, and please make your check or money order payable to the Michigan Bear Hunters Association. Bear patches will be available until supplies are gone. Currently, the 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012 patches are available for purchase. For information on the patches, contact the address above or email alimcv@yahoo.com.

Commercial Forest (CF) Lands

Over 2.2 million acres of privately owned forests enrolled in the CF program are accessible to the public by foot for fishing and hunting. Use of motorized vehicles for fishing and hunting access is at the landowner's discretion. The CF lands are not posted or signed as commercial forests and may be fenced and/or gated. The presence of a fence or gate does not prohibit public access to CF lands for fishing or hunting. The owner may restrict public access during periods of active commercial logging to ensure public safety. Other than foot access for the acts of hunting or fishing, activities such as (but not limited to) camping, leaving anything unattended (e.g. bait, blinds, traps, etc.), and damaging or injuring vegetation (e.g. cutting/nailing), require the landowner's permission. Commercial activity on CF lands is not allowed for any purpose other than forestry or oil and gas extraction. Legal land descriptions of lands listed in this program are available on the DNR website at www.michigan.gov/gohunt under "Where Can I Hunt?" If you have questions about this program or specific CF lands, contact the nearest DNR office or DNR Forest Resources Division, P.O. Box 30452, Lansing, MI 48909, or call 517-373-1275.

Wolf-Dog Conflicts

Wolves, like most members of the wild canid family, are territorial. Wolves will defend their territories and may attack other wolves, coyotes and domestic dogs that are in their territory. Most wolf-dog conflicts occur during the bear training and hunting seasons, which overlaps with the time wolf pups are using homesites. Wolf pups remain at these homesites until they are ready to travel with the adults – usually in early fall.

Dogs used for hunting bear are at risk of being attacked by wolves because they: (1) traverse large areas, which increases their chance of coming near or encountering a homesite; (2) are released at bear bait sites that also may be used by wolves; (3) bark while tracking, which may be viewed as a territorial challenge by wolves; and (4) are some distance from the hunters and therefore not protected by the presence of humans.

Avoiding Potential Problems

To minimize the conflict between wolves and dogs, it is best to avoid areas of recent wolf activity. Wolves will concentrate much of their activity around the den and homesites. These sites often are not used from year to year and can change throughout the summer. Homesites usually are forest openings or edge areas and often are near water. They can be identified by the concentration of wolf tracks, droppings and matted vegetation. It is best to do some scouting beforehand and look for wolf sign before releasing your hounds. Be especially vigilant when starting dogs from a bear bait site and make sure wolves have not been using the bait. If wolf sign, and particularly the sign of wolf pups is evident, move to another area before releasing your dogs.

What You Can Do:

1. Report all suspected wolf-dog conflicts to the DNR immediately to allow a timely investigation.
2. Become familiar with coyote and dog tracks, so they can be correctly distinguished from wolf tracks.
3. Consider adding bells or beepers to dog collars - some hunters have reported this can reduce wolf attacks.

Requirements for lethal control of wolves that are in the act of killing or wounding a dog

1. The owner of a dog or his/her designated agent may use lethal means to kill a wolf that is in the act of preying (killing/injuring) upon the owner's dog. A wolf that is merely present near a dog does not authorize the use of lethal control.
2. Report the taking of a wolf to the DNR as soon as practical, but no later than 12 hours after the incident.
3. If lethal means are used to kill a wolf, a person shall not move or disturb the dead wolf, or the area where lethal means were used, until a DNR official is present. The person who used lethal means to kill a wolf must produce the dog that was attacked for inspection by DNR officials.
4. A DNR official shall respond to the scene where lethal means were used to destroy a wolf no later than 12 hours after notification.
5. The owner of the dog or his/her designated agent may report the taking of a wolf by utilizing the Report All Poaching (RAP) hotline at 1-800-292-7800.

For information on dog conflicts with wolves, contact the Marquette Customer Service Center at 906-228-6561.

Bear Registration Stations by County

At the registration station, an official seal shall be attached to the bear and information shall be obtained from the hunter. It is no longer necessary for hunters to surrender a kill tag when sealing a bear. An asterisk * next to the check station indicates limited staff and/or limited office hours. Hunters must call the DNR office or private cooperator before arriving to schedule an appointment.

REPORT ALL POACHING

Call: 800-292-7800

Drawing results will be posted at www.michigan.gov/huntdrawings on June 24.

Preference Point System

Bear licenses are issued to hunters through a preference point system that began in 2000. In the license drawing, applicants with the greatest number of points in each hunt, earned in previous drawings, are issued licenses first. Those who are not selected receive a point for future drawings. Upon selection for a license, an applicant's preference points will return to zero, including successful applicants who choose not to purchase their license. Points are also reset to zero for applicants who do not apply for three consecutive years.

Preference points are tracked by the customer ID. If applicants use a different ID to apply than they used in previous years (or use an incorrect ID), their previous points will not be considered in the drawing. If there is a change in ID, applicants must call 517-373-1263 before the application deadline to ensure that their points are combined under their current ID.

Bear drawing success rates vary by bear management unit and hunt date. An applicant with no preference points may be drawn for a hunt that is in low demand, while a unit in higher demand may require five or more points to draw a tag. Each year, applicants may apply for any hunt they choose, and their total preference points will be considered in each drawing.

Applicants may apply for a harvest tag or apply for a preference point only, banking the point for future drawings. Applicants must be of legal age to hunt in this year's bear hunting season to be eligible to apply for a preference point (Hunt No. 00). Only one point will be awarded in a given year.

Those who fail to apply or are ineligible to apply for a license for three consecutive years will lose their points.

Check your preference points at www.michigan.gov/huntdrawings.

Applying With a Party

- Applicants who wish to hunt together should apply as a party, with a maximum of four persons per party. This is especially important for apprentice hunters.
- One of the partners must purchase an application for a hunt period, and will receive a party ID number. Remaining partners must provide this party ID number when applying and should verify the party ID number is correct on their receipt.
- You must use a new party ID number each year.
- The party's preference point total will equal that of the partner with the fewest number of points.
- If any partner is a nonresident, the entire party is considered nonresident. No more than two percent of licenses in any unit will be issued to nonresidents.
- All partners will receive a license if the party is selected, except for those who submit an invalid application.

Thank you for purchasing a Michigan hunting license. Your hunting license dollars help restore and improve habitats for wildlife species, advance research on wildlife and wildlife-borne diseases, foster programs that help ensure access for public hunting, support hunter safety education and much more. We encourage you to keep hunting and to share your experiences with others. In doing so, you can do your part to keep our state's hunting heritage alive for future generations.

The Federal Aid in Wildlife Restoration Act places an excise tax on firearms, handguns, ammunition and archery equipment. The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service apportions these funds to state wildlife agencies to be used for wildlife management, research, habitat acquisition, game area and shooting range development and hunter education. Since its inception in 1937, Michigan's share of the Wildlife Restoration funds has reached over $262 million.

Apprentice Hunting License

A person who does not have a hunter safety certificate and is 10 years of age or older may purchase an apprentice hunting license. An apprentice hunter may purchase this license for two license years before he or she must successfully complete a hunter safety course. The apprentice hunting license is available to residents and nonresidents.

When afield, an apprentice hunter must be accompanied by someone 21 or older who possesses a regular current-year hunting license for the same game as the apprentice. For apprentices between ages 10-16, the accompanying hunter must be the apprentice's parent, guardian, or someone designated by the parent or guardian. "Accompanied by" requires the accompanying hunter to be able to come to the immediate aid of the apprentice and stay within a distance that permits uninterrupted, unaided visual and verbal contact.

For hunting bear, the accompanying hunter needs a 2013 bear hunting license, but it does not have to be for the same management unit or season dates as the apprentice. A person may accompany no more than two apprentice hunters while hunting.
